POST-GRADUATE WORK PERMIT DISCLAIMER

Students graduating from a private college are not eligible for post-graduate work permit (PGWP). However, students may qualify for a different stream of work permit after receiving an employment offer. Our International Student Services team can help you through the process.

I, _____ (name), understand that Robertson College is not listed as one of the eligible institutions for PGWP.

WORK PERMIT APPLICATION

You are eligible to apply for a work permit once you have successfully obtained an employment offer. Our team will help you with the application process to MPNP to receive a support letter for your work permit.

CAREER SERVICES

As a Robertson College student, you will receive help and support from the Career Services department. We are here to assist you in finding employment after you graduate.

Once you have met our graduation requirements, we will support and work with you until you find your first employment after graduation.

Lifetime Career Service: If in the future you would like to change your employment, we will be here to help you as well. As alumni of Robertson College, you will always have access to our Career Services department. We will help you search for new employment, revise your resume and help you prepare for your next interview.
